

S&P NATIONAL RATINGS UPGRADES KUO'S CREDIT RATING TO 'mxA+' FROM 'mxA' ON THE NATIONAL SCALE

Mexico City, September 1, 2025 – KUO, S.A.B. de C.V. (KUO), announces that S&P National Ratings has upgraded its national scale credit rating from “mxA” to “mxA+”, following the implementation of a revised methodology for evaluating companies in Mexico. This updated framework is intended to more accurately reflect the structural and economic dynamics of the Mexican market.

Rating update summary:

- New Rating: “mxA+” (previously “mxA”)
- Outlook: Stable

Key highlights from S&P's report:

“KUO's credit indicators continue to show consistent improvement, a trend we expect to persist over the next 12 months. We also anticipate the company will maintain a prudent financial policy, reflected in an adjusted net debt-to-EBITDA ratio slightly below 2x, while focusing on strengthening its operations in the consumer sector.”
